

More time for public comment and public debate should be made available for this important issue. There is a growing concern that a few corporations can have an overwhelming influence on the media presentation of information to the public. There is a need to limit cross ownership. Please delay your decision until there is more thorough open and public discussion on this issue.